

Ayshford Great House

Ayshford Great House is a traditional Barbadian plantation house for sale in the countryside of Barbados. This St. Thomas property set on a hillside is situated on 6 acres of land.

On the lower level of this traditional Barbadian plantation house for sale is the entrance hall, living area, formal dining room, a large kitchen with a large walk-in pantry and half bathroom. In addition there is a large 30 x 40 game room with a bar and three galleries. Including the large half-moon shaped covered front terrace, the property offers commanding panoramic views across the island to the coastline and Bridgetown Harbour.

The upper level of this Barbados real estate for sale, which can be accessed by the staircase or an elevator, has three bedrooms and two bathrooms.

Also on the grounds of Ayshford Great House is a guest cottage with two large bedrooms both en suite with two bathrooms each, a large swimming pool and jacuzzi with a patio. Below the patio is an exercise room, dressing room, double showers and sauna. There is also a tennis court and a pagoda for outdoor dining for sixteen or more.

There are three outbuildings plus an extensive covered storage area and paddocks on the grounds. Mature trees, hardwood floors, high ceilings and casement doors and windows are but a few of Ayshford's fine luxury features.

This traditional Barbadian plantation house for sale is a short drive away from amenities in Warrens such as banks, supermarkets and shopping centres.
